

Left to right: Deputy Chief/Major Matt Burns, Captain Scott Brown, Chief Roy McGill

"Highly effective law enforcement, outstanding service."

City of Germantown Police Department

75 North Walnut Street Germantown, OH 45327 Phone: (937) 855-7271 Fax: (937) 855-2345

www.germantown.oh.us

Join us on Facebook:
City of Germantown Police Department

Chief of Police Roy W. McGill Jr., CLEE gpdchief@germantown.oh.us

NOW HIRING AUXILIARY POLICE OFFICERS

ARE YOU UP FOR THE CHALLENGE?

AN OFFICER PROCESS

- Application
- Initial Interview
- Written Exam
- ♦ Background Investigation
- BCI & FBI Fingerprint Checks
- Pre-Offer Polygraph Exam
- Conditional Offer
- Post-Offer Polygraph Exam
- Chief's Interview
- ◆ Employment Offer
- ◆ Appointment

FIELD

TRAINING

- Helps in understanding the "higher calling" that we believe is inherent to police work
- ◆ Explains our concepts of:
  - ♦ Being a "Blue Knight"
  - ♦ Police Officers as "Leaders" in the community
  - ♦ The teachings of OPOTA's "Blue Courage" series
  - ♦ Our Core Values
  - ♦ Our Mission Statement
- Acclimates you to the City of Germantown
- Familiarizes you with Department operations and procedures
- Prepares you to take your career successfully into the future

BENEFITS

- Grow your career with a strong record of accomplishment and achievement
- Market yourself by becoming a fully commissioned police officer
- While an Auxiliary Officer's service is "volunteer" or unpaid, Officers receive a $1 stipend each year, so that they receive the protections of our professional liability insurance (not medical) & come under protections of the Workers' Compensation laws

- Showcase qualifications & abilities for possible subsequent positions as Part Time Officers (over $17.00/hour) & Full Time Patrol Officers (starting at over $25.00/hour)
- Receive rewards for commendable performance & service