COUNCIL MEMBER'S REPORT:

Mr. Boeder's Report:

He stated that June 6th is an important day in our history. It was the D-Day landing in 1944. He thanked all the Veterans and their families for the sacrifices that they made.

He went on by thanking Mark Steinecker and the Cemetery staff. The Cemetery looked very nice for the Memorial Day service. He also thanked the Lion's Club and the many volunteers who helped with the Memorial Day service.

Mr. Johnson's Report:

He extended his condolences to Tom Schiff and his family.

MUNICIPALITY OF GERMANTOWN COUNCIL

MONDAY, JUNE 6, 11

He also extended his condolences to Paul Zanowick's family. He was a student of his and it was a privilege to have him in class at Miamisburg.

He thanked Ralph Tidd for his years of service with the Municipality.

The Park Board met last week and finalized the Fourth of July Parade festivities. The Board also looked at Kercher Park. He noticed that some of the fencing on the fields at Kercher Park is falling down and needs to be looked at.

Mr. Koogle's Report:

He thanked GRS, Inc. for the purchase of the new Rescue Truck.

He attended the Economic Development Committee meeting and the monument sign bids have gone out. They also discussed making some changes to the new banners that have gone up in the downtown area.

The Memorial Day Service was wonderful and the attendance was great.

He thanked Ralph Tidd for his years of dedicated service to the Municipality. He will be missed.

He gave Tom Schiff his condolences.

He went on by thanking the Germantown Police Department for their fast work that was done with the car break-ins. He was one of the victims who had their car broken into and by the time he reported that he was a victim, the Police already had someone in custody. The Police Department did a great job.

Mr. Kuhn's Report:

He stated he attended the Fire Oversight meeting tonight and that GRS, Inc. purchased a new Rescue Truck for the Fire/EMS Department. This will take two of the old trucks off the road and save space and money. The new truck will put the large engine back into service within thirty minutes instead of having to sit on the scene of an accident.

He thanked the Police Department for their help with the break-in at the Pharmacy. They handled the case in a very timely manner, and did an excellent job.

He went on by thanking Ralph Tidd for his years of service.

He wished Tom Schiff sympathy.

Mr. Schwaberow's Report:

He announced that the MVRPC meeting was cancelled due to lack of agenda.

Mr. Wafzig's Report:

He congratulated Ralph Tidd on his retirement.

Nancy Miller with the University of Dayton will be attending the next Council meeting to review the community survey.

He attended the MVCC meeting on May 18th. They discussed outstanding issues.
