LAW DIRECTOR'S REPORT:

The Law Director reminded everyone that Ohio's texting ban is in effect when you are driving.

He has received a signed agreement from the United Methodist Church and the City has received the first payment for the tap in fees.

He has compiled the comments of the Managers review and has gone over them with her.

He contacted OMAA last week concerning the legislation for internet cafes. The legislation is pending in Columbus.

He will be getting information regarding the enclosures for dumpsters to Council soon.

He would like to discuss the legislation that has been tabled by Council regarding mobile food vendors due to some changes that need to be made. He asked that Council not remove it from the table tonight.

Mr. Wafzig questioned if he has an update on Camp Miami. The Law Director replied that he has had contact with the registered agent and they have had inquires on prospective buyers for the property. He would like this topic put on a work session for a later discussion.
