FIRE CHIEF'S REPORT:

Chief Alldred reviewed the November Fire-EMS report.

He went on by thanking Mayor Landis for his support with the Fire-EMS Department. He thanked Mayor Landis for his service to the City. Germantown Fire-EMS wish him much happiness in the future.

He wished everyone Happy Holidays.

MAYOR'S REPORT:

MUNICIPALITY OF GERMANTOWN COUNCIL

MONDAY, DECEMBER 16, 13

He stated he attended the FRWWC meeting with Jonathan Moore on December 4. He had a copy of the most current report/budget put in each Council member's packet. He briefly reviewed the report. The Board members from FRWWC have requested that Jonathan Moore be the representative from Germantown.

COUNCIL MEMBER'S REPORT:

Mr. Boeder's Report:

He congratulated Mayor Landis on his 26 years of service to the Municipality.

The Cemetery levy had the recount and did fail by 6 votes. The Cemetery passed a resolution tonight regarding a replacement levy that will be placed on the ballot in May 2014. The Township Trustees along with the Council will also need to agree and pass a resolution supporting the levy being placed on the ballot in May 2014. He briefly explained the replacement levy and that voters may not have understood that no additional monies would be collected. He has spoken with the Manager regarding a resolution for Council to support the replacement Cemetery levy and has asked that it be placed on the December 30 special agenda.

He wished everyone a safe and Happy Holiday.

Mr. Johnson's Report:

He thanked all the Park Board members that helped with the Christmas in the Park event. He thanked Rick and Sally Bishop for allowing Santa and Mrs. Clause to stay with them while visiting Germantown.

He wished everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. He asked everyone to take time to remember the reason for the season.

He went on by saying that it has been an honor and privilege to serve with Mayor Landis. Even though they have not always been on the same side of an issue, they have smiled and shook hands in the end. He thanked Mayor Landis for his service to the community.

Mr. Koogler's Report:

He congratulated Mayor Landis on his career as Mayor and Council Member. He complimented him on a fabulous job.

Mr. Kuhn's Report:

He stated that when Mayor Landis began his career as Council Member he was a toddler. As long as has known what a Mayor was, Mayor Landis has been Germantown's. He thanked him for all the years of dedication.

Mr. Schwaberow's Report:

He has served in a couple different capacities with and for Mayor Landis. He appreciates all the guidance and assistance he has provided him over the years.

He went on by saying he attended the MVRPC meeting. He asked the Manager to send Council Members the link to the "Strong Towns" meeting that Mr. Boeder attended. They were saying a day may come when we are unable to maintain our projects. Taxes just cannot keep up with the cost to maintain the ongoing projects. He received information regarding all the resources such as "Safe Route to School" and "Clean Ohio Green Space" that are available and he has informed the Manager of these. We may be eligible for these funds. The Committee did oppose the newest House Bill 5 regarding Tax Collection.
